EASTERN ELK
MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

“Managing Growing Elk Herds for the Future”

December 10, 2009

Dear Colleagues:

We would like to invite you to attend the 15th Annual Eastern Elk Management Workshop on April 11-14, 2010 to be held at the Holiday Inn Select, Cedar Bluff, in Knoxville, Tennessee.

The Holiday Inn Select offers double rooms for $83.00/night. Call the hotel direct at 865-693-1011 or 1-800-HOLIDAY can make reservations. Please mention that you are attending the Eastern Elk Management Workshop to get the government rate. The hotel is located 14 miles (22.53 km) from the Knoxville Airport. There is taxi service available from the airport to the motel.

The theme for this year’s meeting is “Managing Elk Herds for the Future.” We are excited to be meeting with the many partners and sharing information on elk in the east. The itinerary includes an informal social gathering Sunday night and technical sessions on Monday and Wednesday. There will be a field trip on Tuesday morning for those interested in visiting the Tennessee elk restoration zone. We will post updates to the agenda as they become available on the website at www.eemw.org.

Enclosed please find the “Registration Form” and “Call for Presentations.” The registration form should be printed and mailed to the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Foundation. Registration is $70.00 for regular attendees and $30.00 for students. All abstracts must be received no later than February 28, 2010.

In order to help fund next years meeting, monies are raised through an auction and given to next years host. Please send or bring any items that may be used for an auction to raise money for future meetings.

If you have any questions contact the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency at 423-587-7037 or Steve Bennett (423-587-7037; steve.bennett@tn.gov) We are looking forward to seeing you in Knoxville!
