ECHOES OF ZION ORIGINAL PAINTING
By Larry Zabel

RMEF recently lost a dear friend, artist Larry Zabel. Although Larry’s paintings of the American West, its wildlife, ranching life and native peoples have won him high acclaim, Larry was much more than a gifted artist. He was also a dedicated RMEF life member and staunch 25-year supporter, a man of grit and generosity who gave freely of his time and talent to the Elk Foundation, as well as to his local chapter in Ennis, Montana. This beautiful original painting of Echoes of Zion is a perfect way to remember such an important man. Larry contributed more than $300,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program. (And, on a personal note: Larry, I thank you, I miss you, and I’ll never forget you. —Kristy)

JOHN WAYNE COLLECTOR’S EDITION SADDLE AND RIFLE SET

RMEF Habitat Partner, George Michel, has generously donated this amazing collector’s item to the 2013 Elk Camp Auction. Circle Y Saddles was selected by Wayne Enterprises to craft this special John Wayne saddle. Celebrating the 100th anniversary birthday of film legend John Wayne, the saddle is inspired by the original on display at the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City. With its hand-tooled design, engraved brass rigging, rawhide braided riata and Mexican peso conchos, this saddle commemorates Duke’s legacy of courage, strength and grit. The package includes a custom saddle stand with tooled-leather medallions and an engraved sterling silver and gold numbered maker’s plate, an informative DVD and a book about John Wayne’s film history. If that wasn’t enough, RMEF has added the 1892 John Wayne 100th Anniversary Winchester rifle. The Model 92 High Grade Carbine is also officially licensed by the John Wayne family. This .44-40 Winchester has a gloss blued barrel, silver nickel nitride receiver with engraving and includes a rear carbine ladder sight and a blade front sight. The stock is satin walnut with steel buttplate and large loop lever. This package is truly a special addition to a western heritage collection that is sure to be a treasure of the future.

POSSUM—ONE FANTASTIC MULE!

By Jake, Kay & T.J. Clark

Possum is a nine-year-old sorrel mare mule that is 15.1 hands tall, 1,100 pounds and drop-dead gorgeous. T.J. has been riding her for the past five seasons, and for those who know T.J., this is a sure sign that Possum is exceptionally well-broke and very responsive. This beautiful mare mule has an impeccable Quarter Horse confirmation with a baby doll neck and those big beautiful, long ears that give her athletic ability and intelligence. Possum has been ridden and packed many miles and is as gentle as they come. The mules Jake chooses to bring to Elk Camp have sold for $18,000-$32,000. Jake’s love for his mules inspired their Mule Days event, which features and promotes the best saddle-mules nationwide. Don’t miss this opportunity to buy Possum, and join Jake at their 16th Annual Mule Days parade and “sale-a-bray-tion” in Ralston, Wyoming, June 12-16, 2013, Father’s Day weekend. The Clark family’s Wyoming Wilderness Outfitters has contributed more than $489,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

BLACK MALE LAB PUPPY

By Lori’s Labradors

Ok, could he get any cuter? Lori and Roger Young, long-time friends and supporters of RMEF, are returning to Elk Camp with a big, black, beautiful lab puppy! The litter arrived December 8th, and, by the time Elk Camp arrives, he will be 11 weeks old, housebroke, crate-trained and micro-chipped. He will also have his due-claws removed and will have started his retrieving training. He’ll have all of his shots and he will be ready to fly. This puppy has excellent bloodlines including American Field Champions, Field Champions, Master Hunters and Junior Hunters. Roger and Lori have been raising quality Labrador retrievers for 17 years and have an excellent reputation for breeding quality dogs. They are a small kennel, and they strive to produce calm, intelligent dogs that are very trainable. Lori’s Labradors make great hunters and family pets. Their dogs can also be found working with Gallatin Country Search & Rescue and Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks. Lori and Roger have contributed more than $55,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

RAINY PASS LODGE COMMEMORATIVE RIFLEMAN’S RIFLE

In 2012 Rainy Pass Lodge and the Winchester Model 70 rifle both celebrated 75 years of quality hunting. To commemorate this milestone, Steve and Denise Perrins commissioned a limited edition of 75 very special custom rifles. This featherweight stainless steel .300 WinMag Rifleman’s Rifle features a grade IV/V full-fancy walnut stock. The floorplate features an engraving of a bear drawn by Buckey Winkley, Registered Guide #34 and known to many of you. One side is engraved “Rainy Pass Lodge” and the other with “75 Years of the Rifleman’s Rifle”. The rifle comes with a custom commemorative sleeve and a copy of a State of Alaska Certification for Rainy Pass Lodge as Alaska’s oldest hunting lodge. This is a rifle perfect for any collection, and one you won’t want to miss! The Perrins have contributed more than $54,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

RMEF VLTOR TS3 CARBINE 1-OF-1

By Abrams Airborne Mfg Inc./Vltor Weapon Systems

Especially made for RMEF, this weapon was first featured on the History Channel’s “Top Shot”. The Vltor TS3 carbine has the best combination of the features and components offered in today’s market. The TS3 is the result of several different technologies, such as the rigid polyolithic upper receiver, which offers remarkable stability, strength and optics mounting solutions, the patented “A5” buffer and recoil system and the exclusive enhancements of the Vltor lower receiver and stock assembly. These technologies make what was one of the most ergonomic platforms in history even more comfortable and practical to shoot. Abrams has contributed more than $22,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

HANDCRAFTED BAR

By Montana Bunkhouse Designs

Scott Grasky is making his debut at Elk Camp with a beautiful, custom-built, eight-foot bar and four metal barstools. Scott’s work with furniture, decks, fences, and home remodels is inspired by his life growing up on a ranch in Montana and bareback riding on the professional rodeo circuit. Scott attended Northern Arizona University and studied graphic design, then received a rodeo scholarship with Western Montana College where he received a bachelor’s degree in physical education and art. He then spent two years on the circuit riding buckin’ horses in the National Rodeo Association and the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association. Scott then settled into a quieter life in Missoula, Montana, with his amazing wife, Keri, their beautiful daughter, Ramsie Jo, two labs and a couple of cats. And life is great.

COMPLETE MONTANA LODGE TENT PACKAGE

By Montana Canvas

This package includes the Montana Lodge tent, a wood stove, cots, a roll-a-table and camp stools. The Montana Lodge tent is the biggest advancement in lodge tents since the canvas wall tent. The unique hexagon shape creates a spacious interior that comfortably sleeps up to six people. The five-feet side walls and nine-foot, eight-inch ceiling height add ample headroom. A heavy-duty 1.375-inch diameter aluminum frame supports the well-balanced structure, ensuring a high level of support and stability. The camp stove has been moved into the middle of the tent just like a campfire in the center of every campsite. The roof is made of 10.9-ounce white cotton duck treated with fire retardants, waterproofing and mildew inhibitors. The floor sides and end walls are made of Relite™ with the same treatments as the canvas top. Relite is a polyester-based material that is extremely lightweight, durable and more resistant to destructive ultraviolet rays than traditional nylon. Two large zippered doors with screens allow easy access. Other features include four windows and a zip-in floor with a zipper opening in the center for camp-stove placement.

Montana Canvas has contributed more than $128,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

DANNER BOOTS

Danner is returning to Elk Camp and bringing with it a sneak peek of the new film, The Trembling Giant—a short feature celebrating the connection between man, land and animal and the responsibility we share to conserve for the future. Join us at the Saturday auction to learn more about the film and how you can win a trip to RMEF headquarters in Missoula and attend the World Premier. Danner will also be donating a pair of boots to more than 15 different auction hunts, offering an Ultimate Hunter boot package and selling socks, t-shirts and other unique items at the Saturday auction—all to benefit the foundation! They will be featuring the all new USA-Made East Ridge along with their classic, rugged Pronghorn styles. Each live up to the Danner promise—there may be similar ways to craft a boot but there are not similar standards. Danner has contributed more than $200,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

JUNIPER OCCASION TABLE
By Red Lodge Juniper Furniture

Custom designed by nature and painstakingly handcrafted by master craftsman Nefer Villalobos, Red Lodge Juniper Furniture is an instant heirloom and meant to be used daily. Pictured is the bench Nefer donated last year, and this year you’ll find a round occasion table with the same character. The Red Lodge Juniper Furniture workshop is in historic downtown Red Lodge, Montana, on the world-famous Beartooth Highway. Señor Villalobos finishes what nature has been processing for up to a thousand years. The juniper comes straight from the state of Chihuachu in Mexico and the stock is then climatized for several months in Red Lodge before the handcrafting process begins. This unique work of art will be a wonderful conversation piece of any home.

2013 BANQUET EDITION RIFLE—BROWNING A-BOLT WHITE GOLD MEDALLION, .300 WIN MAG

The banquet rifle is beautifully engraved with an overall nickel plated floorplate and 24kt gold selective plating on a select gloss-finish, checkered walnut stock with raised cheekpiece and rosewood caps. It features a glass-bedded receiver, free-floating, hand-chambered stainless steel octagon barrel with target crown, 60-degree bolt lift, adjustable stainless steel trigger and hinged floorplate.

RMEF
BROWNING A-BOLT II WHITE GOLD MEDALLION .325 WSM

The A-Bolt II White Gold Medal has a gold engraved, stainless receiver and barrel. This rifle features a beautifully selected walnut stock, contrasting spacers and a RMEF cap on the pistol grip. A continental-style cheek piece positions head for ideal scope alignment. It features a free-floating, glass-bedded barrel at the recoil lug to maintain the proper spacing around the barrel and provide consistent accuracy. The A-Bolt feeds very smoothly because of its unique, patented cartridge depressor.

SUNKEN TREASURE—LAKE SUPERIOR RECLAIMED PINE COFFEE TABLE

By Tom Bodin

This is no ordinary coffee table but a finely crafted piece of furniture made out of incredibly rare wood. The table was made from a log of white pine that has been sitting at the bottom of Lake Superior since the late 1800s. The tree is estimated to have been more than 150 years old at the time it was logged. The value of these Lake Superior sunken logs is staggering making this table not only an amazing conversation piece but of great value. Because these logs have existed for more than 100 years at large depths and in very cold water, they have been preserved almost to perfection. Not only that, but the wood takes on beautiful streaks of color from the sediment that has worked into the soft pine. RMEF Volunteer Tom Bodin has spent months working on preparation and milling the wood and turning it into a wonderful heirloom.

ELK—ORIGINAL PAINTING

By L M Budge

Linda Budge is a painter who combines her passions for art and living creatures to produce works that radiate empathy and painterly grace. Her extensive knowledge of animals and deep experience interacting with them explains her uncanny ability to capture her subjects so accurately and also helps to explain why her work carries such emotional power. Linda has won numerous awards for her work, and her work can be found in the permanent collections of several libraries, museums, and corporations. One of her highest honors was a painting commissioned in 1983 by the State of Wyoming as a gift to President Reagan, with Linda herself presenting it to the President.

PRAYERS OF THE PIPE CARRIER CANVAS GICLEE PRINT #23/150

By Martin Grelle

Martin Grelle was born and raised in the foothills surrounding his hometown of Clifton, Texas. He grew up with a deep desire to capture on canvas the beauty of his home, inspired by the flavor of the small town and its people. With the guidance of Western artists James Boren and Melvin Warren, he was able to become a full-time artist in his early 20s. His passion for the Old West is evident in the striking landscape he portrays. His quiet subtlety and attention to detail have made him one of the finest and most recognized of Western artists, renowned for his painting of the contemporary West. This piece was framed and donated by Heritage Frames, who has contributed more than $130,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

YOSEMITE VALLEY CANVAS GICLEE PRINT #79/95
By Larry Dyke
Larry Dyke has devoted his life’s work to the interpretation of the beauty he beholds in nature. His success as one of America’s most loved artists is proof of his distinctive ability to create a scene which captivates the imagination of the viewer. Dyke’s genius lies in his construction of intricate settings that even the novice art lover can appreciate. A Native Texan, Dyke began painting professionally in 1976. Dyke’s art has hung in the White House and in the homes of such distinguished personalities as Steve Allen, Shirley Jones, Vincent Price and Billy Graham. His work has also hung in the Vatican. At the personal request of Pope John Paul II, Larry Dyke painted “Sharing the Faith,” a tribute to the long and important role of the Church in America. This piece was framed and donated by Heritage Frames, who has contributed more than $130,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

CUSTOM REMINGTON 700 .358-STA
By Christensen Arms
RMEF member Lynn Scura designed his dream hunting rifle for years before finally having it made. Unfortunately Lynn died before he could ever take it hunting, although he did get the chance to test fire the rifle. His brother, Life Member Larry Scura, said the rifle was meant to be used by an elk hunter and knew Elk Camp was where it needed to be. This Remington 700 is chambered in a “wildcat” caliber of .358 STA. If you’re unfamiliar with the caliber, it falls somewhere between a .340 Wby. and a .375 H&H. Lynn also had custom dies and loaded his own ammo, and the 75 dies come with the package as well as ammo, an aluminum gun case and a Leupold VX-III 2.5-8x36 rifle scope. Larry said he knows his brother would want the rifle to be used and appreciated.

ALASKA FISHING WITH A SOLDIER

By Whaler’s Cove Lodge and Ron Salladay

- Species: Salmon, trout, halibut, Pacific and black cod
- Area: Killisnoo Island, AK
- Dates: Aug. 3-6, 2013
- Other Available Years: None
- Number of Days: 3 nights

Ron Salladay of C-R Cabinets is a longtime donor and supporter of RMEF and came up with an idea of donating a fishing trip for a Wounded Warrior. His friend, Richard Powers of Whaler’s Cove Lodge, jumped on board and donated a second trip for the buyer to come along. The buyer has the choice of picking a veteran they know personally, or we can help arrange a pairing. This is a fantastic chance to fish with one of our heroes in the land Way Up North where the fishing is legendary. Whaler’s Cove Lodge is located on Killisnoo Island just minutes from the Village of Angoon on the western side of Admiralty Island. Their calm waters are a hundred miles by water from any large towns, so they enjoy wilderness adventures without any crowds. At Whaler’s Cove Lodge, you will enjoy the best that Alaska has to offer alongside an American hero. Whaler’s Cove has contributed more than $22,000, and Ron Salladay has contributed more than $10,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

CALIFORNIA FORT HUNTER LIGGETT HUNT
WITH WOUNDED WARRIOR
By Fort Hunter Liggett

- Weapon: Rifle, bow or muzzleloader depending on the training area
- Species: Blacktail deer and wild pig for buyer, tule elk for Wounded Warrior
- Area: Fort Hunter Liggett Combat Support Training Center, Monterey County
- Dates: Aug. 2013 (dates TBA)
- Other Years Available: None
- Guide Service: Licensed guide not included; assistance provided by RMEF staff and volunteers (no gratuity accepted)

Here’s your opportunity to sponsor a tule elk hunt for one of our brave Wounded Warriors. The winning bidder will get to hunt blacktail deer and wild pig alongside the soldier while he takes a tule elk of a lifetime. FHL is located inland along the coast of central California approximately 60 miles northwest of Paso Robles and is home of one of California’s largest free ranging tule elk herds. With a population estimated between 400-500 animals and their prime tule elk habitat, FHL produces a good number of record book trophy bulls. The hunt will take place during the heart of the rut. These lucky hunters will be the only ones with access to all of FHL training areas open to hunting during this time. The local RMEF chapter will provide support and host an evening meal during the hunt period. For more information contact: Michael Friedenberg, RMEF Regional Director at (559) 859-4011 or mfriedenberg@rmef.org.

Lone Star Outfitters offers over 50 years’ experience in hunting these big game animals and has focused on a prime area in southern Colorado noted for the high quality genetics and prime habitat. Owner Walt Isenhour has over 30 years’ experience pursuing trophy bull elk and has identified the area just north of the Vermejo Park and Hill Ranches as a key area for harvesting bulls of the highest quality. Their hunters have taken many bulls scoring over 320 since 1997, with the largest bull, a massive 7x7, scoring 366 5/8 in 2011. Visit the photo gallery on their website to see these amazing bulls. Unit 851 is primarily private land with game management plans in place that ensure the future of these trophy animals. Lone Star Outfitters has contributed more than $142,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

The Alaska brown bear is one of the top 10 hunting trophies in the world. This is truly an outstanding big game animal and a formidable adversary. They inhabit a land that is shrouded in mystery, and the biggest brown bears in the world live in Alaska. The regal caribou and the raven-colored black bears are also prevalent throughout the Rainy Pass hunting area. Steve Perrins, owner and operator of The Perrins’ Rainy Pass Lodge, is also an RMEF Life Member and has been the volunteer State Chair for Alaska. Let Steve and his family treat you to a first-class bear and caribou hunt and an Alaskan experience you will remember for a lifetime. The Perrins have contributed more than $54,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

NEW ZEALAND WAPITI AND RED STAG HUNT

By New Zealand Hunt/Phil Wilson

- Weapon: Rifle
- Species: Free range New Zealand wapiti and red stag
- Area: Fiordland, South Island, New Zealand
- Dates: Mar. – Apr. 2014
- Other Years Available: 2015
- Number of Days: 9 days/7 hunting days (weather permitting and client willing)
- Number of Hunters: 1
- Hunter/Guide Ratio: Semi-guided
- Add’l Hunter Cost: $10,000
- Non-Hunter Cost: N/A
- Upgrade Available: Contact outfitter
- Hunt Accommodations: Spike camps and meals included
- Hunt Transportation: Air and or boat transport to hunting area included
- Transportation: To and from Queenstown airport included
- Trophy Fee: Included
- License/Permit: Hunter must purchase $25NZ firearms license “ballet” draw-tag in October

This is a true wilderness backpack hunt and a chance to enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to hunt out of a number of pack-in spike camps with a small hunting group of dedicated wapiti hunters. This animal is unique to New Zealand and is a cross between a Rocky Mountain elk and a red stag. This is the only place in the world where this animal exists and can be hunted. Fiordland is the most remote part of New Zealand and offers what master-guide/outfitter Phil Wilson, with over 30 years of guiding experience, considers to be the toughest hunt in the world. At times, this challenging hunt can seem like everything is against you, and this is what makes it special. Very few, if any, Americans have ever taken a true, free-range bull out of Fiordland, but the bulls are there, and the success rate is 50%. The elevation is 4,000 feet with rainfall of 200-400 inches per year, similar to Alaska. This is the first and only time this type of hunt has ever been offered at Elk Camp by this long-time RMEF exhibitor. It will be possibly the toughest and most rewarding hunt you will ever experience.

- Danner: Has donated 2 pairs of Pronghorn 400G boots

Bell Wildlife Specialties has donated another fantastic whitetail deer hunt for two. With dense cover and abundant food sources, their deer grow big, and 150-160-class deer are common. The chances of taking a Boone & Crockett buck are high in this area. They offer lodging in three different buildings, including a rustic two-story limestone building built in 1900. After you bag your Kansas whitetail deer, meat processing and taxidermy are all in-house. With Bell Wildlife Specialties, there are no worries. They are also very active in youth hunts and have hosted the Pass It On Outdoor Mentors youth program annually since 2002. Bell Wildlife Specialties has contributed more than $92,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

- Transportation: From Lewiston or Grangeville airports included
- Trophy Fees: N/A
- License/Permit: Hunter must purchase over-the-counter license and tags

Come hunt the legendary C4 Ranch and Lodge for one of North America’s most elusive predators. You can do elk a favor by knocking down the number of wolves on the prowl—currently capped at five wolves per hunter. Wolves are very nomadic hunters but concentrate where the game is. This year alone C4 Ranch has seen more than 18 wolves, and the prospects of filling your bag limit are good. Wolves are well known for being difficult, cagy creatures to hunt and will require a lot of calling and glassing. With that said, C4 has also driven up on the wolves a number of times, and you will not find better guides, accommodations, meals or camaraderie. Let Jim Zubillaga and the folks at C4 Ranch and Lodge show you their first-class hospitality and a wolf hunt you won’t forget. Jim has contributed more than $20,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

IDAHO SPRING BEAR HUNT FOR 2

By Wild Idaho Outdoors, Inc.

- Weapon: Rifle
- Species: Spring bear
- Area: Unit 27 – Frank Church Wilderness (2-bear area)
- Dates: Spring 2013 (arrange dates with outfitter ASAP)
- Other Available Years: None
- Number of Days: 6
- Number of Hunters: 2
- Hunter/Guide Ratio: 2:1
- Add’l Hunter Cost: $1,950 (advanced reservations required)

This is a pack-in, wilderness spring bear hunt in Idaho’s rugged country. This is a spot/stalk hunt over preset baits. You will ride and/or hike out of base camp each day. Wild Idaho Outfitters encourages families with young hunters and offer reduced hunts for juniors ages 12 to 17 when accompanied by a paying adult. This is a great opportunity to encourage young hunters and get them started with a good hunting experience. This is very rugged terrain, and all operations are conducted from wall tents. Wild Idaho Outfitters also offers summer pack trips and fall hunts in over 150 square miles of the Frank Church River of No Return Wilderness. There is great cutthroat trout fishing, bull elk rifle hunts, a liberal deer season, good bear and lion hunting as well as sheep and goat hunts. They will provide field care of your animals and give you an Idaho bear hunt you will remember fondly for years to come. Wild Idaho Outdoors has contributed more than $8,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

- License: Hunter must purchase $500 license
- Trophy Fees: $12,000 harvest fee included; harvest fee not refundable but may be transferred to 2015.

The family-run operation of Trophy Stone Outfitting is located in central Yukon and their hunting territory, Concession #14, is located 140 air miles north of Whitehorse. This country is magnificent and accessible only by boat or plane. They are the only big game guiding company in an over four-million-acre area. You will find that most of the rams in their hunting area are very dark, as dark as any Stone Sheep you will find in British Columbia. Their sheep have averaged 38 inches each season. Trophy Stone Outfitting tries to set a standard of harvesting only rams with the tip of at least one horn extending above the bridge of the nose. This requirement ensures that they consistently produce rams that are over a full curl, providing you with a top quality trophy. This amazing dream hunt has been fully-donated by Marv and Sandy Kramer who have contributed more than $5,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

Donna McDonald and Karen Butler are enthusiastic about encouraging women in the sport of hunting, and they have teamed up to bring this fantastic package to the Ladies Auction! Karen, named by Outdoor Life as a national leader in hunting, fishing and conservation, started Shoot Like a Girl® when she found it difficult to find hunting equipment designed with the female in mind. Shoot Like a Girl’s mission is to empower women to participate in shooting sports with confidence. Donna is one of the few female licensed outfitters in Montana and the first women president of the Montana Outfitters and Guides Association. She has served on a number of boards and been involved in several major legislative accomplishments addressing issues involving hunting, fishing and outdoor heritage. This is a fantastic elk and mule deer hunt on the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest near Robb Creek—RMEF’s first conservation land acquisition. You’ll experience some of the most scenic and pristine country the west has to offer. After your hunt each day, you will return to delicious meals, wonderful hospitality and first-class accommodations in Upper Canyon’s spacious and comfortable lodge. Blain Jackson’s premium high-country pack-in mule deer hunts are second to none. They have good numbers of adult-aged bucks measuring 20” to 26” wide and scoring average around 160 B&C points. They take a few bucks considerably larger every year. Cottonwood also has unbelievable elk quantity and quality. Their camps are nested under the snow covered peaks rising over 10,000 ft. Bring your hunting gear and warm bed roll, and their surefooted horses and experienced guides will do the rest. The Jarbidge is a sportsman’s paradise, so join the Cottonwood crew, the fantastic cooking and experience hunting the way it used to be in the West. This is a hunt you will always remember. Cottonwood Ranch has contributed more than $56,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

Holt Lake Lodge has donated a fantastic hunting and fishing package in their beautiful and remote area of Saskatchewan. Since 1998 they have enjoyed a 100% success rate on large bears with the average length approximately 72 inches. They limit their hunters to ensure they have a good population of big bears. Your bear will be skinned and frozen for you, and Holt Lake Lodge can provide transportation to a taxidermist for a small additional charge. They have blinds and stands for bow and rifle hunters with plenty of Boone & Crockett and Pope & Young-class bears.

Balancing Arrow guided the first five hunters who purchased the statewide special Nebraska elk tag. Dana Bokelman with Balancing Arrow also offers guided deer, antelope and turkey hunts. They manage more than 10,000 private acres of northwest Nebraska’s Pine Ridge Country. Dana has been professionally guiding hunters in this area since 1991 as well as offering fly-fishing for three species of trout and guided equestrian rides for small groups. These Merriam’s turkey hunts are extremely successful, and their birds are pure descendants from the initial birds released in northwest Nebraska in 1959. The guided hunt for two offers a relaxed but serious atmosphere with lots of action. Dana has contributed more than $5,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

T. Phillip Bowers, owner/outfitter of Lone Wolf Guide Service, operates a full service outfitting operation in some of the most trophy-rich habitat Montana has to offer. Past archery clients have harvested bulls up to 403 P&Y, and the unit has produced rifle bulls up to 431 B&C. Lone Wolf Guide Service has exclusive hunting rights on some of Montana’s finest private land ranches where the trophy potential is fabulous. Client hunters will apply for the MT general drawing before March 15 and then apply for a HD 590 elk permit by June 1. HD 590 is a limited entry trophy bull elk unit, and permits must be drawn. In 2011 50% of the archery hunters drew this permit. The chances of drawing a rifle elk permit in this area are less than 25%, but upgrades to a rifle hunt can be discussed. T. Phillip Bowers, a second-generation Montana outfitter, has extensive experience hunting, guiding and packing in Montana’s finest big game country. Phillip invites you to join him on a true trophy elk hunt. Lone Wolf Guide Service has contributed more than $13,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

The legal hunting age in Maine is 10 years old, so this is a wonderful parent/child experience. A parent can also hunt or accompany youth for additional fee. The Russell Pond Camps Lodge is located 70 miles from Greenville, Maine, where you’ll find good success rates for bear hunting over bait. This is a wilderness location far from the pressure of other hunters. They bait an area over 430 square miles to spread out harvest and reach the highest amount of bears. Baits are set up in well-scouted, proven locations. They provide all transportation to and from stands as well as preparation of your trophy. They use primarily ladder-type stands and generally focus on the evening hunt. Guests can fish or just relax in the mornings. B Bar C & Russell Pond Outfitters has contributed more than $44,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

Here is a dream hunt you will not want to miss! Studies have shown that the moose population has been growing or holding its own in this area. The beautiful area where Delta Big Game Outfitters hunts is full of rivers, canals and small lakes. This water-locked land allows bulls in the area to age and to grow as large as 50” - 60”. Saskatchewan has the second largest herd of whitetail in North America with some of the best genetics in the world. They are widely known for their large mass and heavy horns. The area consists of 1,450 square miles for moose and 500 square miles for deer. These remote areas offer hunters the possibility of harvesting large, trophy animals. You will not want to miss this amazing Canadian hunt experience provided by the warm and hospitable folks at Delta Big Game Outfitters. Delta Big Game Outfitters has contributed more than $7,000 to the RMEF’s Big Game Banquet program.

ARIZONA SPECIAL ELK PERMIT

- Dates: Aug. 15, 2013 – Aug. 14, 2014
- Species: Bull elk
- Area: Statewide except Camp Navajo in Unit 6B, Mohave County Park Lands in Unit 16A and Fort Huachuca in Unit 35A. (Open areas do not include any area closed to hunting under ARS sections 17-303 and 17 304 or Commission Rules R12-4-301, R12-4-801, R12-4-802 and R12-4-803)

Arizona boasts some of the biggest bulls in North America. Through the RMEF alone, this tag has raised more than $2.7 million since 1987 to benefit elk in the state. The hunter must submit the intact antlers and skull or skullcap for inspection and photographing within three days after the close of the season as prescribed in R12-4-308.

ARIZONA WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE CHAIRMAN’S ELK TAG

- Weapon: Rifle, bow or muzzleloader
- Species: Bull elk
- Area: All areas open to elk hunting except Unit 8 of the White Mountain Apache Reservation
- Dates: Aug. 1 – Oct. 31, 2013
- Other Available Years: None – permit not transferable to another year
- Cost for Add’l Permits: N/A

This rare opportunity is considered by many to be the best elk hunting in the world. There is a three-year wait list to get a regular trophy hunt. The White Mountain Apache Tribe will offer two special elk permits to nontribal members. This special tag allows the hunter to hunt all open elk hunting units including the West End, Sunrise and Maverick trophy areas. The only unit not open to these permits is Unit 8. The Chairman’s tag hunters have exclusive hunt priority from Aug. 1 - Sept. 9—approximately five weeks prior to the earliest elk season on the reservation. The hunter may continue his or her hunt through Oct. 31. However, once the regular hunt begins, hunt unit priority is given to the regular season tag holders. Hunters must hire a licensed White Mountain Apache guide. The guide’s fee is negotiated between the hunter and the guide(s). Hiring a guide or several guides for pre-hunt scouting is recommended but not required. The White Mountain has waived the trophy fee for this tag. The White Mountain Apache Tribe has contributed more than $153,000 to the RMEF’s Business Partners in Conservation program.

• Dates: Choice of either 2013 or 2014 archery seasons, shotgun seasons and late muzzleloader season
• Species: 2 tags: 1 whitetail buck tag and 1 whitetail doe tag
• Area: Statewide
• Weapon: Bow, muzzleloader, shotgun or handgun (weapon is specific to season dates)
• Guide Service: Not included
• License: Not included

Iowa Department of Natural Resources is bringing the special whitetail deer permit back to the RMEF convention auctions. This buck and doe tag is good for 2013 and 2014 early and late archery season, shotgun seasons 1 and 2 as well as late muzzleloader season. Funds for this tag will go to support wildlife management in Iowa. Iowa is widely known to produce giant whitetail deer. Each year Iowa hunters have harvested a number of 200-plus class bucks. In 2006 the famous “Mingo Buck” scored 230. Don’t miss this special opportunity to hunt monster deer in the beautiful forests of Iowa!

NEW MEXICO SPECIAL DEER PERMIT

- Weapon: Any legal weapon
- Species: Bull elk
- Weapon: Any legal weapon
- Species: Deer; any 1 buck
- Area: Statewide on any public land open to hunting, including Wildlife Management Areas and private land with permission
- Guide Service: Not included

The New Mexico Department of Game and Fish brings its Special Deer Permit to Elk Camp for the fourth time. This is a highly sought-after tag. New Mexico’s Rio Arriba county has more mule deer in the Boone & Crockett record book than any county in the United States. The lucky hunter will have the opportunity to harvest a trophy-class buck in the game management unit of his or her choice using any legal weapon, regardless of the season. New Mexico has continued to manage its deer for both quality and trophy bucks. Proceeds from the permit sale will go to benefit deer in New Mexico. For details, contact the New Mexico deer biologist at (505) 476-8039.

2013 marks the 100th Anniversary of elk restoration by the Pennsylvania Game Commission, and RMEF is honored to be able to offer the fifth and final Pennsylvania Special Elk Conservation Tag at Elk Camp. In 2008 Pennsylvania passed a law awarding one special elk tag to be auctioned each year for five years. 2013 marks the last year for ACT 2008-101 and unless the act is renewed, the last Special Elk Conservation Tag will be sold. Pennsylvania’s elk herd numbers approximately 700 head and in 2010, Boone & Crockett ranked Pennsylvania in the top 10 trophy bull producing states of the decade. RMEF and the Pennsylvania Game Commission have a long and productive partnership in stewarding elk habitat in the Keystone State as well as enhancing conservation education.

WYOMING GOVERNOR’S BIG GAME TAG

- Dates: 2013 season
- Species: Hunter’s choice of elk, deer or antelope
- Area: Any open hunt area in the state
- Weapon: Legal weapon for appropriate season
- Guide Service: Not included

The buyer of this tag may choose to hunt elk, deer or antelope during the 2013 hunting season in any open hunting unit in the state of Wyoming (both general license and limited quota license areas). Season dates and license numbers for 2013 will be finalized in May 2013. The buyer of this license must select the species to be hunted, then may hunt any open hunt area in the state, subject to existing season dates and limitations. All current regulations apply for the particular hunt area being hunted at the time, including means of take. Buyer may hunt different or multiple units in the state but only take one animal. Any resident or non-resident whose privileges to purchase a license are not under suspension or revocation in Wyoming or other wildlife violator compact states is eligible to bid on these licenses, including previous Wyoming governor’s license purchasers. These licenses may be purchased in addition to drawing a license for that species in the license draw.

WYOMING GOVERNOR’S MOOSE PERMIT

- Dates: 2013 season
- Area: Any open moose hunt area with more than 10 antlered licenses are issued
- Weapon: Legal weapon for appropriate season
- Guide Service: Not included

The buyer of this moose tag is allowed to hunt moose in any open moose hunt area with more than 10 antlered or any moose licenses issued. In 2012, that included hunt areas 1, 5, 10, 20, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 38/41. These areas accounted for 75% of the antlered or any licenses issued in 2012. All current regulations for the chosen hunt area apply including method of take (i.e. only archery equipment can be used during the archery season). Buyer may hunt different or multiple units in the state but may only take one animal. Season dates and license numbers for 2013 will be finalized in April 2013. Any resident or non-resident whose privileges to purchase a license are not under suspension or revocation in Wyoming or other wildlife violator compact states is eligible to bid on these licenses, including previous Wyoming governor’s license purchasers. These licenses may be purchased in addition to drawing a license for that species in the license draw. Purchase of a Wyoming Governor’s Moose License is exempt from the five-year waiting period and does not affect any preference points accumulated.
